DECEMBER 2018 EBULLETIN

Stewardship Saint of the Month: January

Saint John Nepomucene Neumann, fourth bishop of Philadelphia

John Nepomucene Neumann was born in Bohemia in 1811 and named by his parents after the patron saint of Bohemia. Neumann was known to be an exceptionally gifted seminarian, intellectually and spiritually. He studied at the University of Prague and traveled to the United States to be a missionary after his bishop decided to postpone ordinations due to an oversupply of priests in the diocese.
