

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC
ARCHDIOCESE OF ATLANTA

Memo

Date: November 13, 2017

To: Pastors and Campus Ministers

From: Mr. Ashley Morris, Associate Director, Office of Intercultural and Ethnic Diversity

Re: 2018 MLK Jr. Celebration – Young Adult Award

---

On the occasion of the Archdiocese of Atlanta's 2018 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. celebration honoring the life and legacy of Dr. King, we pause to honor a young adult member of our Atlanta Catholic community who has demonstrated great accomplishments in the area of evangelization.

This member of our faithful Catholic community will be awarded the 2018 Msgr. Edward B. Branch Young Adult Award, which will be presented at our Eucharistic Celebration on Saturday, January 20, 2018 at 1:00 p.m. at The Catholic Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Please see the attached application packet or complete the online form to nominate a deserving young adult from your parish or campus ministry. Completed applications should be submitted to the Office of Intercultural and Ethnic Diversity no later than Tuesday, December 5, 2017. Submission details are listed in the attached application packet.

This is an ideal opportunity for your parish to nominate a young adult who excels and serves as a shining example of the energy and witness of our present and future Church within your parish or campus center. Remember, this award is not limited to parishioners of any particular ethnic group; everyone is eligible as long as they meet the criteria listed in the application packet.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter. If you have any questions, please contact MLK Jr. Weekend Celebration Planning Committee member Samantha Smith at (404) 920-7346 or via email at ssmith@archatl.com.

The Monsignor Edward B. Branch Young Adult Award

History

Msgr. Edward B. Branch devoted the majority of his priesthood to the spiritual development of young adult Catholics. He has taught numerous young adult Catholics over the years, instilling in them the importance of service and involvement in their faith.

Based on the example of Msgr. Edward B. Branch, the Office of Intercultural and Ethnic Diversity wishes to continue to acknowledge young adults throughout the Archdiocese of Atlanta who are involved in their Catholic community during the annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. celebration.

Nomination Criteria

Nominations are now being accepted for laypersons and seminarians who are young adults (ages 18-39), and are of any ethnic background who are distinguished in the ministry of evangelization.

The nominee will be honored at the annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Mass on Saturday, January 20, 2018 as the recipient of the Msgr. Edward B. Branch Young Adult Award.

There can only be one nomination per parish, mission or Catholic university center. Please use the following nomination criterion for your selection process. The selection process within your parish, mission or Catholic university center is left to the pastor's and the pastoral council's discretion. Award nominations must be received by Tuesday, December 5, 2017.

Please see the following criteria for nominations:

- Must be a practicing Catholic
- Must have demonstrated consistent and continuous volunteer efforts, and have given his/her personal time and energies to further the goals and objectives of evangelism
- Must engage other youth and/or adults to become part of their Catholic community

Please note that previous recipients are ineligible for this award and financial considerations should not play a significant role.

Award Selection

After December 5, 2017, all of the nominations received are reviewed by a selection committee, composed of a minimum of five objective Catholic parishioners from parishes and missions across the Archdiocese of Atlanta.

Without knowing the name or gender of the nominees, the selection committee reviews each of the nominees' information, and votes for who they believe best meets the criteria of the award. The nominee with the most votes is selected as the 2017 recipient of the Msgr. Edward B. Branch Young Adult Award.
