Re: Notre Dame Conference – “Preaching as Spiritual Leadership”

The Department of Theology at the University of Notre Dame is offering the “Mystic and Mystagogue: Preaching as Spiritual Leadership” conference June 24-26, 2019. The conference will address the key questions in preaching – how to lead people into an encounter with the living God.

Attendees will explore the roots of Catholic spiritual tradition as a source for deepening preaching. Other topic discussions include how a preacher can flourish as a spiritual leader and how preachers lead others into committed discipleship through preaching.

The event will be at the Notre Dame Conference Center at the university. The registration fee includes conference materials, refreshments and a Tuesday night banquet. The early bird rate is $250 if booked before April 30, 2019. Full registration fee is $300. Lodging is available on campus in one of the residence halls for $75 per night or at the Morris Inn for $169.00 per night. Participants are responsible for making their own lodging arrangements.

Ongoing formation funding is available for this conference. You will find the funding application and policy information on our webpage.
