Re: Active Shooter Training Video

At Archbishop Gregory's request last year, on Monday December 4, 2017, Bernard King, Public Programs Coordinator for Cobb County Emergency Management Agency and Alex Hagan of Catholic Mutual conducted a training to prepare our churches for a potential active shooter incident. Over 100 of you attended back then.

Given this weekend's tragic shooting at a Pittsburgh synagogue, it would be good to watch this training video again with your staff and volunteers in order to be as prepared as we possibly can be.

Here is a link to the video.

Videos shown within this presentation are:

- RUN. HIDE. FIGHT.® Surviving an Active Shooter Event
- Options for Consideration Active Shooter Preparedness Video

This video link is not viewable by the public. It is for internal use only as training specifically for employees and volunteers of The Archdiocese of Atlanta.

Thank you.
