

Memo

Date: October 17, 2022

To: Clergy and religious, parish communicators, campus ministers, social action ministers, respect life ministers and prison ministers

From: Jayna Hoffacker, associate director, Justice and Peace Ministries

Re: Advocacy in Georgia webinar

Please consider sharing this information with your community. A social media graphic is included with this memo.

In Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the U.S. Bishops write, “Participation in political life is a moral obligation.” In addition to our vote, our participation in political life also takes the form of advocating for policies and laws that promote the common good.

Join us for Advocacy in Georgia, a webinar that will focus on the legislative issues facing Georgians in 2023, and how best to advocate with our elected officials. We will hear from Frank Mulcahy, executive director of the Georgia Catholic Conference.

Advocacy in Georgia will be held on Monday, December 12, at 7 p.m. via Microsoft Teams. Click here to register.

For questions or more information, please contact me at jhoffacker@archatl.com or 404-920-7898.