

Annual Aquinas Day celebration—Emory University

The Aquinas Center will be hosting an annual Aquinas Day celebration on Thursday, January 19, 2026, with a worship service beginning at 11:05 a.m. at Cannon Chapel with lunch and lecture immediately following in Chandler School of Theology, room 360.

Dr. Matthew Cressler will be drawing from his webcomic series, “Bad Catholics, Good Trouble.” He’ll be sharing some forgotten stories that reveal how the Catholic tradition has both reinforced oppression and inspired radical witness.

Click here for accompanying flyer.