Toward Full Communion: Hopes, Achievements, Obstacles, and Challenges

Join us for a lecture event featuring Cardinal Kurt Koch of the Vatican as he examines interfaith and ecumenical efforts in our world today.

Cardinal Koch serves as President of the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity and President of the Pontifical Commission for Religious Relations with the Jews. His lecture will elaborate on his Vatican positions, discuss his commitment to ecumenical dialogue, and provide insights from Pope Francis on interfaith endeavors.

The Aquinas Center was formed in 1987 to bring Catholic scholarly resources to Emory University, the Archdiocese of Atlanta, and the broader community. Our purpose is to explore the living Catholic tradition through

Unraveling
critical ethical issues

Building
understanding among faiths

Inspiring
community
dialogue

Mentoring
future Catholic leaders
