

Memo

Date: November 17, 2025

To: Priests, deacons, religious brothers and sisters, family-life ministers, pastoral care leaders and parish staff

From: Patrick Metts, associate director, Office of Evangelization and Discipleship

Re: Family Honor retreat for adolescents and their parents

In collaboration with St. Luke the Evangelist Catholic Church, Family Honor—a Catholic organization formally approved by the Diocese of Charleston—is hosting a one-day workshop designed to help parents and their adolescent children strengthen family communication and build virtue. This workshop places a special focus on the virtue of chastity.

Event Details

- Workshop Title: "Real Love & Real Life"
- Date: Saturday, February 7, 2026
- Time: 8:30 a.m. – 4 p.m.
- Location: St. Luke the Evangelist Catholic Church, 91 North Park Street, Dahlonega, 30533 GA

What Families Will Learn

Through engaging presentations, skits, videos, breakout sessions and Q&A panels, this workshop equips families to communicate more effectively about difficult topics, including family conflict, peer pressure, dating and purity/chastity. This format helps foster open dialogue and provides practical skills for navigating real-life challenges while building a foundation of virtue.

Registration & Information

For complete details on the workshop content and to register your family, please visit the link.