

Memo

Date: March 31, 2025
To: Pastors, clergy, music ministers and directors of liturgy
From: Fr. Gerardo Ceballos-Gonzalez, director, Office of Divine Worship
Re: Invitation to National Pastoral Musicians on the Road—Atlanta, July 7-8

The Archdiocese of Atlanta is pleased to invite you and your parish music and liturgy teams to participate in NPM on the Road—Atlanta, a two-day workshop designed to strengthen and inspire those who serve in liturgical music ministry.

Event Details:

Location: Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church, Atlanta, GA

Dates: Monday, July 7 - Tuesday, July 8

Registration and Details: <https://npm.org/npm-on-the-road-atlanta/>

Presented by the National Association of Pastoral Musicians (NPM), this gathering provides a valuable opportunity for pastoral musicians, clergy and liturgical leaders to grow in their ministry, enhance their skills and deepen their theological understanding of music in the liturgy.

Why Attend?

- Workshops and Formation – Practical training for cantors, choir directors, instrumentalists and liturgical planners.
- Spiritual and Theological Enrichment – Deepen your understanding of the role of music in worship.
- Liturgical Music Best Practices – Explore new resources, techniques and strategies for vibrant parish liturgy.
- Community and Networking – Connect with fellow pastoral musicians, clergy and liturgists from across the region.

We encourage pastors and music directors to invite their parish musicians and liturgical leaders to attend this enriching formation event. Investing in the ongoing development of our liturgical ministers strengthens the church's mission and enhances the worship life of our communities.
