

Memo

Date: March 9, 2020

To: Clergy

From: Patricia DeJarnett, Ph.D., Associate Director, Office for Divine Worship

Re: Naming the bishop in the eucharistic prayers

---

We welcome Archbishop Gregory John Hartmayer, OFM, Conv. as our seventh archbishop of Atlanta.

The priests in the Diocese of Savannah will continue to name Archbishop Hartmayer in the eucharistic prayers and the priests of Atlanta will continue to name Bishop Konzen in the eucharistic prayers until Archbishop Hartmayer's installation in Atlanta.

The priests in the Archdiocese of Atlanta will not include Archbishop Hartmayer in the eucharistic prayers until he takes canonical possession of the Archdiocese on May 6.

Until that time, please add the following to your parish prayer of the faithful:

In thanksgiving for our newly appointed Archbishop Gregory Hartmayer, may he be welcomed by the people of the Archdiocese of Atlanta and be granted peace and wisdom in this new assignment.