

Memo

Date: February 1, 2021

To: Clergy, parish staff and bulletin editors

From: Patrick Metts, LPC, Family Life and Pastoral Care, Office of Formation & Discipleship

Re: National Catholic Men's Conference – Feb. 19-21, FREE

A National Catholic Men's Conference is being hosted by the Virtual Catholic Conference on February 19-21. During the conference, participants will be drilling down into the practical lessons of living their vocation as fathers, husbands, sons and disciples.

Archbishop Gregory Hartmayer, OFM Conv., will be giving a welcome talk for all participants from the Archdiocese of Atlanta. During the conference, there will be more than 40 speakers giving a wide range of practical and immediately applicable steps for becoming a strong and faith-filled Catholic man.

Registration for the conference is free.

To register and obtain additional information, please visit <https://go.virtualcatholicconference.com/NCMC2021>.