

Memo

Date: August 5, 2019

To: Priests, Deacons, Religious Brothers and Sisters, and Parish Staff

From: Daniel West, Marriage, Family and Pastoral Care; Office of Formation & Discipleship

Re: Natural Family Planning information night at St. Jude

St. Jude the Apostle Catholic Church will host a Natural Family Planning (NFP) information night on Wednesday, August 21, at 7:00 p.m.

Deacon Jim Tramonte will be the featured speaker on Humanae Vitae & God's plan for married love.

Sara Flood, BSN, RN will give an overview of Natural Family Planning.

Paul and Cindy Young will give a personal testimony of how NFP has blessed their marriage.

Wine, cheese, and other light refreshments will be served. For full information and to RSVP, please visit the Saint Jude's website, www.judeatl.com/nfpnight.