

Memo

Date: September 26, 2022
To: Pastors, principals and administrative assistants
From: Maureen Smith, director, Office of Communications
Re: Parish communicators' contact information

The Office of Communications is in the process of updating their distribution lists.

Please make sure we have at least one email of a person you have selected as a parish communicator for your location. Someone able to receive the Communiqué and other important announcements pertaining to your facility and the Archdiocese of Atlanta. This information may be sent to Communications@archatl.com.

We appreciate your cooperation in this matter. Sending communications is an important part of our daily tasks and it keeps all of us informed.
