

Memo

Date: August 1, 2022
To: Priests
From: Maureen Smith, director, Office of Communications
Re: Photos to be made at convocation

The Archdiocese of Atlanta's Office of Communications will be making photographs of priests at convocation this year. Johnathon Kelso, photographer for The Georgia Bulletin, will have a mini-studio on site to get a new photo of each priest. Even if you believe you have a photo on file, we need a new one. This is the first time in almost five years since photos were made.

Please bring a clerical shirt and collar for your photo. We will also make the traditional group shot of all priests on Wednesday evening. If you have any questions, contact me at msmith@archatl.com or 404-920-7344, or Johnathon Kelso at jkello@archatl.com.

If you have questions about convocation itself, please contact Amanda Hailey at ahailey@archatl.com.
