Re: Position vacancies

The Office of Mission Advancement for the Archdiocese of Atlanta seeks a full-time administrative assistant to coordinate meetings, manage calendars, handle correspondence and assist with event logistics and presentations. Responsibilities include clerical tasks, customer service, supply purchasing, maintaining invitation and contact lists and general support for the chief advancement officer and a campaign project. Qualified candidates have a bachelor's degree or more than three years of administrative experience, strong communication and editing skills, professional demeanor, interpersonal skills, sound judgment and a proactive mindset. Must be proficient in Microsoft Office, especially Excel; detail-oriented, flexible and able to manage multiple projects. Bilingual in English and Spanish preferred. To apply, send cover letter and resume to bcalia@archatl.com.

St. Pius X Catholic High School located in Atlanta is seeking a dynamic and faith-filled principal to lead our vibrant community of students, faculty and families beginning July 1, 2026. The principal reports directly to the president and works in conjunction with the superintendent of Catholic schools in the Archdiocese of Atlanta. The ideal candidate must be willing to support and uphold the mission and teachings of the Catholic Church; demonstrate a deep commitment to Catholic education and be dedicated to nurturing the spiritual, academic, and personal growth of our students. Key qualifications include proven high school leadership experience, strategic and fiscal management skills and an appreciation for the history, traditions and culture of St. Pius X Catholic High School. Applications are open until December 12. Interested candidates should submit a cover letter addressing their personal and professional background, experiences in fostering positive organizational culture and examples of leadership impact, along with a current resume and three professional references to Aaron Parr, President, at aparr@spx.org. Candidates who meet the criteria will be contacted in January 2026 for interviews. For more information, please visit
