Re: Purification Church Part of Georgia Trust Expedition to Washington, GA

The Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation is hosting an expedition to Washington, GA on Saturday, July 21 and will feature Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary as one of the stops. This expedition is self-guided and includes several historic sites in Washington and the surrounding area.

Purification Church in Sharon was named as one of The Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation's Places in Peril in 2014. However, it has been undergoing revitalization thanks to the Friends of Purification Church.

Registration, ticket options and further information about the expedition can be found on the Georgia Trust's website at <https://www.georgiatrust.org/tours-events/expeditions/>.
