Re: “Readings and Reflections,” new podcast on daily readings

As you know, the Archdiocese of Atlanta has been livestreaming the daily Masses from St. Dominic’s Chapel since March 2020. We have now gained a collection of those recordings over the years and would like to share them with people who may want a little daily inspiration. We have decided on a unique and resourceful way of using those recordings.

Starting on Ash Wednesday 2024, we will repurpose the recorded readings and affiliated homilies into a daily podcast titled, “Readings and Reflections.” You are welcome to share and promote this content and inspirational words with your community. This and much more is available here.

We thank you in advance for your participation and look forward to your input.
