"Trust Your Journey"

Renee is a native of Georgia. She graduated from Georgia Baptist School of Nursing in 1979 and has worked in the NICU at Kennestone Hospital for 35 years. Her love for Jesus and others will touch your hearts as she tells of her faith journey to the Catholic church in 2010. Renee has appeared on EWTN's - The Journey Home, The Catholic Café and was the keynote speaker at a Women's Catholic Conference in Memphis, Tennessee. She also ministers to women in prison and is a breast cancer survivor. Renee will be sharing her prayer life and introduce us to a method of prayer that may change your life.

To reserve a spot at this breakfast please make your reservation and payment by mail, or place in the weekend offertory and notate "Women's Prayer Breakfast" or drop off at the parish office. Cash and checks only. ($15.00 if you pay at the door)
