

Memo

Date: October 28, 2019

To: Priests, deacons, brothers, sisters, principals, parish, school and chancery staff

From: Maureen Smith, Director, Office of Communications

Re: Repairing the World: Finding Harmony in Our World

The Archdiocese of Atlanta and American Jewish Committee (AJC) Atlanta Regional Office will host a community-wide discussion, “Repairing the World: Finding Harmony in our World” on Thursday, November 7, 2019.

This event will be held at the Temple Sinai, 5645 Dupree Dr. NW, Sandy Springs, GA 30327. Doors will open at 5:30 p.m. A light hors d'oeuvre reception will begin at 6:00 p.m. followed by the program at 7:00 p.m. The evening will center around individual table conversations about how we can promote harmony in our communities.

The program will feature the Georgia Tech Catholic Choir, actress Pamela Alexander, Consul General of Israel Anat Sultan-Dadon, and interfaith trailblazers Brendan Murphy of the Marist School and Rabbi Ellen Nemhauser.

This event is free, but registration is required. Visit our website to register.

Please share this flyer, social media graphic and web/internal television system slide with your community. A sample announcement is included below.

Sample Announcement:

Join the Archdiocese of Atlanta and American Jewish Committee (AJC) Atlanta Regional Office for a community-wide discussion, “Repairing the World: Finding Harmony in our World” on Thursday, November 7, 2019 at the Temple Sinai, 5645 Dupree Dr NW, Sandy Springs, GA 30327. The evening will center around individual table conversations about how we can promote harmony in our communities. Doors will open at 5:30 p.m. A reception will begin at 6:00 p.m. followed by discussion at 7:00 p.m. This event is free, but registration is required. For more information or to register, visit <https://www.ajc.org/atlanta>.