Re: Scam Alert – Man Asking for Money from Multiple Churches

This week, we were notified about a scam involving a man going to multiple churches asking for money.

The man identifies himself as “Robert Marshall” and has been visiting Transfiguration Catholic Church on and off for about six years. He comes to the church after office hours to ministry functions asking people for money.

He also attended Mass, stood up at the end and told the congregation he needed money or would be homeless.

Please remember to handle financial assistance requests according to your parish/school procedures. When in doubt, please contact us for verification, if needed.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
