RE: Scott's Run with Catholic Charities Atlanta - Registration is LIVE!

Lace up your shoes and prepare for some fall fun! Come run (or walk) with us on September 29, 2018 at Piedmont Park!

About Scott's Run:

Scott's Run began in honor of Scott Starratt, a Marietta native and officer of INS (now called Immigration and Customs Enforcement). He stood out among his peers for his kindness and compassion for foreign children who ended up in detention. Scott died in an automobile accident in 2001, and his colleagues established this annual event with Catholic Charities Atlanta to support individuals and families in need. All proceeds directly benefit the Catholic Charities Atlanta's Immigration Legal Services Program.

Race Details:

- Timed Race: Registration is $40 (Peachtree Qualifier)
- Untimed Race: Registration is $30
- Fun Run: $20 per person
- Fun Run begins at 8:30 a.m.
- 5K Race Begins at 9:00 a.m.

Unable to participate but still want an awesome Scott's Run t-shirt? Don't worry, when you visit our registration page there is a phantom runner option where you can donate $30 to show your support (and receive an awesome t-shirt!)
